Subject: Your clinical trial on health

Dear Paul Wilkins,

How the NHS and Worldwide Health Services are Currently Worsening Everyones Health is an important study.

Health Education and Public Health is a peer reviewed journal publishing papers on health education and primary health. Journal aimed to provide in-depth public health information to enhance the health of people and to contribute to a healthier and more equitable world. We are sure that your article will be helpful to improve global public health.

Awaiting for your reply,
