

Some Difficult Poetry

- 1) In poetry it's frightening
Each word comes to mind like lightning
Except a few
Which are hard to rhyme to

- 2) Each poet is always having a whinge
About the word orange
With which time after time
You can't find a rhyme

- 3) Also it's so very rare the word 'objective'
Because it is so protected
The word 'happy' is awkward too
I can't think of a few

- 4) Oh well I always find a word
Which is to be heard
In a poem by me being said
After me carefully using my bright head

© Paul Wilkins 29/03/06