

European Champions 2022 The England Lionesses

- 1) The 2022 UEFA European Women's Football Championship has just taken place
Which was to bring a smile to many an English face
Because under Manageress Sarina Wiegman they were to get up to their tricks
And have the biggest triumph, for seniors, since the men in 1966
- 2) Yes after in the Quarter and Semi final shaking Spain and Sweden up
In the final they faced Germany, at Wembley, to see who could win the Cup
In which at the end of normal time there was a draw
To be followed by extra time once more
- 3) Then Chloe Kelly scored a deciding goal
Which at Wembley, attended by 87,192 people, had lots of cheers on the whole
Also millions of all round TV viewers yes
Who for the Lionesses victory had lots of celebration or so I guess
- 4) Prince William then, after medals, presented Captain Leah Williamson with the trophy they'd won
Whilst having quite a bit of talented fun
And the Queen praised the Lionesses with deep appreciation
Calling them 'the inspiration for girls and women today and for the future generation'
- 5) On a later day England were to have a further EURO 2022 victory celebration at Trafalgar Square
With about 7000 English fans there
Looking at an achievement to be given a very big cheer
And definitely to be mentioned again on BBC 'Sports Personality of The Year'
