

HRH Princess Anne is 70

- 1) It's Princess Anne's 70th birthday today
Let's all say hip hip hurray
She's been around for quite a while
Bringing to everyone in this country a smile

- 2) Princess Anne was a horse-riding sports star in 1971
Winning the European 3-day event before much time had gone
Then getting 'Sports Personality of the Year'
And by all the others present given a nice cheer

- 3) Princess Anne riding a horse as she ought
Once appeared on BBC TV's 'Question of Sport'
In both sport and the Royal Navy she has done very good
Taking part just the way she should

- 4) Princess Anne has now been married to Vice Admiral Sir Timothy Laurence for ages
Taking each other through their different life stages
Having Peter Phillips and Zara Tindall as their children yes
Also now a few grandchildren or so I guess

- 5) Princess Anne lives in a Gloucestershire home with her relations today
Helping to support many a different charity with no delay
And we hope for her and family all continues to go well
Both now and in what the future has to tell
