

Prince George's Birth

1. Bringing to this country lots and lots of joy
The Duchess of Cambridge today had a baby boy
At 4.24pm the birth of this 8lb 6oz Prince took place
Which brought a smile to plenty a face
2. Thousands took to the Streets to join the Royal Family in celebration
Having lots of rejoice with not a bit of hesitation
Whilst everyone's enjoying a nice glass of wine
Kate and her baby boy are doing quite fine
3. William and Kate will have to give this baby Prince a name
To be used quite happily time and time again
They've decided to call him 'George Alexander Louis' yes
A quite good name or so I guess
4. To the Queen and Prince Philip this is a special day
On which everyone world-wide is saying 'hip hip hurray'
Following a great happening this afternoon
Everybody is completely over the moon
5. The Prince's Baptism will be the next big occasion
A fact of which we'll need no persuasion
And each person with a generous smile on their face
Will watch this Royal Church Service joyfully and thankfully take place
