

Prince Philip's 90 Today

- 1) It's the Duke of Edinburgh's birthday today
At which we say hip hip hurray
He's been with the Queen in Buckingham Palace for a while Bringing to many people and charities a very big smile

- 2) In 1940 he went on many a hard mission
Whilst in a world war naval position
He really had lots and lots of promotion
As he was sailing all over the ocean

- 3) Prince Philip was extremely happy to be seen
When he fell in love with and married the lady to be Queen
Travelling the world together in the Britannia ship for ages
Bringing their Royal children Charles, Anne, Andrew and Edward Through life's many different stages

- 4) He still often goes out and about
Enjoying carriage driving without a doubt
Has supported many charities in this country and abroad
Along with given out to clever people many a Duke of Edinburgh Award

- 5) We once more wish Prince Philip a very happy 90th birthday
Hoping he has a really nice day today
And wish that for him all continues to go well
Both now and in what the future has to tell

© Paul Wilkins 10/06/2011