

Sir Alastair Cook

- 1) Sir Alastair Cook was born in Gloucester in December 1984
Then grew up to be an English high standard cricketer never seen before
He was for ages to help the English cricket team out
And do that without a doubt
- 2) Making all the different sports pages
Alastair was to get the most Englishman's test centuries for ages
And as a very clever Captain to be seen
He led England to Ashes Triumph in the years 2013 and 2015
- 3) Alastair was a left handed batsman yes
Always doing for his country all that he could or so I guess
Also helping Essex County cricket club do well
His cricketing career had a long positive tale to tell
- 4) Alastair having a great all round cricket player been
Took his England international career retirement in 2018
Though he'd definitely for them come of assistance
Helped them test-wise cover oh quite a distance
- 5) Alastair was mentioned on 2018 'BBC Sports Personality Of The Year'
And given a very big cheer
Before on the 29th December 2018 just like he should
He was given by The Queen a truly honourable 'Knighthood'
