

Sir David Attenborough Is 100

- 1) Sir David Attenborough was born, in Isleworth, Middlesex on the 8th May 1926
Then studied at Clare College, Cambridge (MA), and London School of Economics
Whilst today he has reached a very special birthday stage
With him becoming 100 years of age
- 2) Attenborough joined the BBC in the year 1952
Producing Zoo Quest for quite a few
Later serving as Controller of BBC Two in a good way
Showing colour television for the first time in the UK
- 3) Attenborough married Jan Ebsworth Oriel from 1950 to 1997
Then sadly she needed to go to rest in heaven
Though they had 2 nice children as-well
Who in life had a real lot to tell
- 4) Attenborough has produced and narrated lots of highlighting biodiversity
And environmental issues on TV
Including The Blue Planet, Our Planet, Wild Isles and Secret Garden for lots to see
He's been a prominent advocate for the environment too
Highlighting climate change and conservation to both me and you
- 5) Attenborough was knighted in 1985 certainly yes
Also winning Multiple BAFTA and Emmy awards or so I guess
Becoming a true Natural TV Star for ages
Taking all of us through different Natural Life stages
