

The Ashes Winners 2013 England

1. With lots of good cricket to be seen
England have won The Ashes in the year 2013
Yes through many players for Captain Alastair Cook being a hero
They've just beat Australia 3-Zero
2. Whilst with the cricket bat having quite a bit of fun
England successfully in 'Trent', 'Lords' and 'Chester-le-Street'
Had the tests won
Although as hitting plenty a six and four
In 'Old Trafford' and 'The Oval' they could only manage a draw
3. After getting three centuries in what his skills had to tell
Man of the series was England's Ian Bell
Him and other English cricketers had done extremely great
And that's without a bit of debate
4. All the English players had made the right approach
Deeply thanks to Andy Flower their head coach
Who of them all was very proud
Along with the high numbered spectating crowd
5. England now with no hesitation
Are enjoying a nice all round celebration
Taking a very cheerful lap of honour today
Without the slightest bit of delay
