

The Birth Of Princess Charlotte Elizabeth Diana

- 1) The Royals William and Kate now have a baby daughter
Who hopefully will do all that she's ought ta
To a very big hip hip hurray
She was born 8.34am on the 2nd May

- 2) Born with a slight bit of delay
Kate's baby daughter 8lbs 3oz did weigh
In St Mary's Hospital, London this took place
Bringing a smile to many a face

- 3) Whilst Buckingham Palace was showing plenty a banner
The Royals William and Kate decided to call their 2nd child
Princess Charlotte Elizabeth Diana
This was using many a Royal Family name
To be remembered time and time again

- 4) Prince Charles and Wife Camilla gave Kate and baby Charlotte a visit yes
And were both pleased at the new birth or so I guess
Before much time had gone
Now Prince George had a baby sister with whom to get on

- 5) The Royals William, Kate and newly born Charlotte were also soon to be seen
By the nice Prince Philip and extremely popular Queen
Everyone in this country were soon to be celebrating for ages
With the new member of the Royal Family making all the front pages
