

The Coronation Of King Charles III And Queen Camilla

- 1) Following Queen Elizabeth II British monarch sadly coming to an end
The Coronation of King Charles III and Queen Camilla took place this weekend
And held by the Archbishop of Canterbury yes
It was a special throne crowning event or so I guess
- 2) In Westminster Abbey this Coronation service was to be seen by me and you Attending there live, and watching it on TV, it witnessed by quite a few
Including all the ex-Prime Ministers to present of the UK
And lots of the Commonwealth Leaders with no delay
- 3) Before, and after this, there was a trooping of the colour parade
Which despite a bit of rain was not at all delayed
Then from Buckingham Palace having a good sight
King Charles III and Queen Camilla gave a nice wave to lots of people's flag flowing deep delight
- 4) On Sunday at Windsor Castle there was to be heard many a nice concert song
Take That, Katy Perry, Lionel Richie, Andrea Bocelli, Bryn Terfel and Freya Ridings singing along
And, with a 70-piece orchestra, also Gareth Malone's 300 voice choir
Giving everyone, including The Royal Family, all the great entertainment they did require
- 5) This weekend, and on Bank Holiday Monday, many parties and communities were had Quite a lot of the worldwide population of the new British monarch very glad
All sharing with King Charles III and Queen Camilla a lot of celebration
Together singing the National Anthem with no hesitation
