

The Life Of Bob Monkhouse OBE

- 1) Bob Monkhouse was born on the 1st June 1928 in Beckenham, Kent
Before to Goring Hill School in Worthing, Sussex he went Followed by Dulwich College in South London yes
Were he wrote and drew for lots of comics, including 'The Beano' & 'The Dandy' or so I guess
- 2) Bob, to be given plenty a big cheer
As an English comedian, writer and actor did appear
Starting with Radio Comedy with Denis Goodwin
He then in over 30 quiz shows in British television regularly participated in
- 3) Bob married Elizabeth Thompson 1949 to 1972 quite definitely
Then Jacqueline Harding 1973 to 2003
Who were to have 3 children to make a nice family
Whilst he performed in a number of comedy films to be seen quite popular on TV
- 4) Bob in many TV Game Shows took place
In 'The Golden Shot' 'Celebrity Squares' 'Family Fortunes' & 'Bob's Full House' showing his face
Helping lots of contesting families out
Wanting them all to enjoy taking part no doubt
- 5) Bob's final stand up show was at the Albany Comedy Club in London on the 25th August 2003
Which in remembrance of him was shown time and again by the BBC TV
Including in December 2023 to mark his death's twentieth anniversary
With him sadly dying of cancer in Eggington, Bedfordshire on the 29th December 2003

© Paul Wilkins 29/12/2023