

The Life Of Paul O'Grady MBE DL

- 1) Paul O'Grady was born on the 14th June 1955 in Birkenhead
Before with a career as English comedian, broadcaster, drag queen, actor and writer he went ahead
Achieving notability in the London gay scene, with drag queen persona 'Lily Savage' in 1980 yes
Then gaining broader popularity in the 1990's or so I guess
- 2) As 'Lily Savage' Paul appeared on 'The Big Breakfast', 'Blankety Blank' and 'Lily Live!' for ages
Coming out with various rewards and a well known public figure through different stages
He then in the early 21st century dropped this character to become a true male TV presenter
With lots of TV and Radio shows including 'For the Love of Dogs' doing all that he was meant ta
- 3) Paul was married to wife Teresa Fernandes 1977 to 2005
Followed in 2017 by husband Andre Portasio having for him a strive
Who doing everything that they ought ta
Where to look after one nice young daughter
- 4) After taking place a little bit of debate
Paul got a 'Member of the Order of the British Empire' (MBE) in the Birthday Honours of 2008
For his service of entertainment going on for a while
Bringing to lots of the population a very big smile
- 5) Then sadly for you and me
Paul passed away on the 28th March 2023
Though he'll be remembered forever
With his performance and charity support slipping people's minds at all never

© Paul Wilkins 28/03/2023