

The Life Of Sir Harry Secombe

- 1) Sir Harry Secombe was born in St Thomas, Swansea, on the 8th September 1921
Entering this world before much time had gone
Then going through lots of different life stages
Him and his parents were to go to church regularly for ages
- 2) Harry was to become a Welsh actor, comedian, singer and TV presenter
Doing completely all that he was meant ta
Marrying Myra Atherton from 1948 to 2001 yes
Having a family of 4 children or so I guess
- 3) Harry took part in plenty a stage musical, and comedy act
And became a great singer as a true matter of fact
Later to release many a musical song CD
To be deeply enjoyed by you and me
- 4) Harry presented 'Songs of Praise' and 'Highway' for a while
Singing lots of hymns like 'Faith Can Move Mountains' to bring to the public a big smile
Granted well deserved 'Knighthood' in 1981
He later appeared in 'This Is Your Life' by Michael Aspel as a really special going on
- 5) Harry most known for the position of 'Mr Bumble' in Carol Reed's 'Oliver' film on TV
With 'The Harry Secombe Show' he was also quite great to see
Then he was sadly diagnosed with prostate cancer in September 1998
And he died in Guildford, Surrey, on the 11th April 2001, aged 79, through a sad fate