

The Snooker Career Of Dennis Taylor

- 1) Dennis Taylor was born, in Coalisland, Northern Ireland on the 19th January 1949
Last year turning 75 to be drank to with wine
He was to become a snooker professional starting in 1972
To be cheered on by oh quite a few
- 2) Dennis reached his highest ranking in 1979-1980 yes
When he was ranked 2nd or so I guess
During the Grand Prix competitions he did extremely well
As his great snooker career fully had to tell
- 3) Dennis has been married to Louise Taylor for a while Bringing to him a very big smile
Having a family of five children too
To often see him with his snooker cue
- 4) Dennis beat Steve Davis in the 1985 World Championship 18-17
With a spectacular competition come back to be seen
Which approximately 18.5 million people stayed up late to see
Causing for many a late night of watching TV
- 5) In the millennium year 2000 Dennis from playing snooker did retire
Becoming one of plenty commentators this sport also does require
To appear on the third TV series of 'Strictly Come Dancing' too
Through his career he has deeply entertained both me and you
